

Education-Related Nonprofits – Guilford County

100 Black Men of the Triad: organization designed to improve the quality of life for African Americans and other minorities

A Healthy Start, Inc.: Provides programs to foster the healthy development (physical, social, and emotional) of preteen and teenage girls in the greater Greensboro area; (336) 272-9671

ABC of Guilford County: Adults Believing in Children, an educational advocacy group formed by parents

African American Atelier: Promotes African American culture through the use of art, 336-333-6885.

ARC of Greensboro: Parents, professionals, and community citizens who assist persons with mental retardation and their families

ARC of High Point: Parents, educators, professionals, community citizens, and people with developmental disabilities that are working toward a common goal of improving the well-being of persons with developmental disabilities through advocacy, research, and education

Advocacy Center for Children's Education and Parent Training: Center for educational advocacy that provides information and support for parents of children with all types of disabilities; (336) 272-6373

Applied Youth Development: Provides classes and activities such as: dance, drill teams, flag group, baton group, summer camp, job development, modeling, leadership, etc; (336) 274-7926

Association for Early Childhood Professionals: Provides support and training on workplace issues for child care employees and family child care providers, and parents; (336) 334-3796

BOTSO Mentors Program: Primarily (but not exclusively) African-American male mentors who create activities and facilitate programs for the youth of our community

Beloved Community Center: Greensboro organization that believes the family, social, political, religious, educational, and economic relations affirm the dignity, worth, and potential of everyone

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Greensboro: Develops the resources, environment, and mechanisms to provide caring adults in the life of many children in need in Greensboro

Big Brothers Big Sisters of High Point: Develops the resources, environment, and mechanisms to provide caring adults in the life of many children in need in High Point

Black Child Development Institute of Greensboro: Membership organization dedicated to improving and protecting the quality of life of children, youth, and families in the Greater Greensboro community

Boy Scouts of America - Old North State Council: Scouting program is designed to give youth a positive environment through recognition and advancement

Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greensboro and High Point: Club whose programs and services promote and enhance the development of boys and girls by instilling a sense of competence, usefulness, belonging and influence.

Caldcleugh Multicultural Arts Center: Promotes cultural awareness in Greensboro, 336-373-5881.

Camp Carefree, Inc.: Provides a free, one week camping experience for youngsters from North Carolina and neighboring states with specific health problems and disabilities

City Arts Drama Center: Offers classes in acting, singing, and dancing, 336-373-2728.

Center for Creative Leadership: Advancing the understanding, practice, and development of leadership for the benefit of society worldwide

Centro de Acción Latino: Provides information and referrals and promotes education, workers' rights, and economic development; 336-274-1188

Center for Visual Artists of Greensboro: An organization which works to promote the advancement and development of visual art, 336-333-7485.

Communities In Schools: Located in Greensboro and High Point, champions the connection of needed community resources with schools and other sites to help young people successfully learn, stay in school, and prepare for life

Community Dialogue on Education: Discussions that occur once a week throughout the year about education in our community; for more information contact the Beloved Community Center (336) 370-4330

Dustin's GreenHouse: Cultivates opportunity for North Carolina students through innovative projects and grants, particularly projects pertaining to technology and travel

Family Life Council: Provides accessible, high-quality and diverse programs, resources and advocacy for today's families, educators and community agencies

Family Service of the Piedmont: Focused on building safe and healthy families and strong communities by providing counseling, victim services, prevention services, and community education

Goodwill Industries of Central North Carolina: Promotes the value of work and self-sufficiency through the provision of vocational services and work opportunities for people with special employment needs.

Green Hill Center For North Carolina Art: Presents exhibits which focus primarily on North Carolina art, and promotes art awareness through educational programs

Greensboro Chamber of Commerce: The voice of business, working to build and sustain a vibrant economy and a superior quality of life in our community

Greensboro Community Television Cable Channel 8: Allows citizens to create local television cable programming, 336-373-1100.

Greensboro Education Development Council: Provides educational resources for targeted populations in community settings and offers a leadership development program for minorities; (336) 271-8124

Greensboro Oratorio Society: A volunteer group for singers. Designed to develop musical talent and appreciation in the community, 336-373-4553.

Greensboro Public Library: Provides free and equal access to information, foster lifelong learning and inspire the joys of reading with seven locations

Greensboro TEACCH Center: Serves children, adolescents, and adults in NC with the diagnoses of Autism 2nd related communication disorders

Greensboro Youth Chorus: Program which provides children the opportunity to perform musically, 336-373-2549.

Guilford Battleground Company: Provides support to the unique partnership of Guilford Courthouse National Military Park, a Revolutionary War battle site, and Tannenbaum Historic Park

Guilford Child Development: Provides a range of services to help child care centers and family child care homes provide the highest quality services for families in Guilford County and surrounding communities, and assists in finding child care that is best suited to meet the needs of the family; host organization to the Head Start Program

Guilford County Association of Educators: Advocates for members and students, to enhance the education profession, and to advance public education in Guilford County

Guilford County Council of PTAs: An advocate and champion for all children and youth by creating unity and support for school units, communicating information, and increasing parent involvement to provide an equitable, quality education for every child

Guilford County Exceptional Children's Advisory Council: Advocates for the appropriate educational programs and related services for all students with disabilities enrolled in the Guilford County School system

Guilford County Partnership for Children: County wide organization that promotes and supports early care and education; administers Smart Start and More at Four programs (336) 274-5437

Guilford Native American Association: Promotes greater academic success among American Indian children in the Greensboro and Guilford County School Systems

Guilford P.A.G.E. \(Partners for Advancement of Gifted Education\): Parents, teachers, and others who help each other with the purpose of providing appropriate educational and life experiences for gifted children

Head Start: Head Start is a federally funded, comprehensive preschool program designed to meet emotional, social, health, nutritional and psychological needs of three and four year olds and their families

High Point Chamber of Commerce: Membership organization which promotes business issues and concerns on behalf of its members for the betterment of the community

High Point Public Library: Contains business resources, a children's room, genealogy/local history, media arts, public computing center, and young adults services

Hispanic Center: Serves the Hispanic community in Greater High Point, provides classes, counseling, individual and group therapy, victim assistance, and child and youth services; (336) 367-7067

Housing Authority-Greensboro: Provide safe, quality, affordable housing to qualified families, elderly and the disabled

Housing Authority-High Point: Provides eligible families and individuals with adequate and affordable housing, economic advancement, and homeownership opportunities, in a safe, drug-free, suitable, living environment, without discrimination

International Civil Rights Center & Museum: Memorializes Greensboro's role in the civil rights movement and is also a teaching facility

Junior Achievement of Central North Carolina: In School economic education programs

Kids' Voting Guilford County: Voter education and civic participation program for students from kindergarten to high school

LaStraw: An organization working on improving the economic and life outcomes of “at-risk youth” and the communities where they live

Learning Disabilities Association: Promotes awareness of the multifaceted nature of learning disabilities

Music Academy of North Carolina: Located in Greensboro, it is a non-profit community music school that offers a comprehensive, culturally diverse curriculum to students of all ages including classical study, a jazz education center, folk/bluegrass lessons, gospel piano, a rock music program, Latino music, and early childhood music

NAACP of Greensboro: Greensboro chapter of the national civil rights organization which protects and enhances the civil rights of African Americans and other minorities

NAACP of High Point: High Point chapter of the national civil rights organization which protects and enhances the civil rights of African Americans and other minorities

National Council of Negro Women: Reaches out to women and their families through service; provides supportive services to Metropolitan Day Care Center, African Heritage House, A&T University; sponsors workshops, programs, and fundraising; (336) 273-6410

Natural Science Center: Hands-on museum, zoo, and planetarium

OPUS: A non-profit organization which provides quality entertainment to the community, 336-373-2549.

Parents as Teachers Faith Community Network: Provides personal home visits, parent group meetings, developmental screenings and community resource referral network. Participation encourages parent/child relationships that establish a firm foundation for future academic and lifelong success

Piedmont Parent: A magazine with information and local resources for the parents of children birth to 18 in the Piedmont

Piedmont Triad Education Consortium: A collaboration of fifteen K-12 public school districts and seventeen higher education institutions in central North Carolina to create a climate in which the strengths of each agency have joined together to become the power of one committed educational community

The Pulpit Forum: Organization of historically African American ministers in Greensboro

Reading Connections: Organization that helps adults live more independently by providing free and confidential basic literacy services, to increase community awareness of adult literacy needs, and to serve as a resource for the provision of basic literacy services

Roy B Culler Senior Center: A recreational center offering activities, crafts and educational programming for senior citizens; (336) 883-3585

SERVE: An education organization with the mission to promote and support the continuous improvement of educational opportunities for all learners in the Southeast

South Africa Book Smart Foundation: Multinational non-profit organization dedicated to assisting the children of South Africa with educational resources

South Eastern Achievement Project: Coalition of churches in Greensboro that focus on schools in the southeast corner of Greensboro that lag behind district and state scores on state reading and math tests (336) 574-0202

Students Taking Action Today - American Red Cross: Provides opportunities for middle school through high school age students to serve their community and develop leadership skills

synerG: An active organization that supports progressive cultural and policy-based initiatives in order to help build a city that is dynamic, vibrant, and diverse

Tristan's Quest: Charitable organization that is dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and adolescents with emotional disorders and their families through research, public and professional education, family support, and direct services

United Arts Council of Greater Greensboro: An organization which works to make the arts accessible to all and provide information for arts and culture in Greensboro.

United Way of Greater Greensboro: An organization that leads efforts to do what matters by creating systemic solutions to issues vital to the people of Greater Greensboro

United Way of Greater High Point: An organization that is a community catalyst in making all children and youth successful, families stronger, and neighborhoods more vital.

Washington Drive Resource & Enrichment Center – Learn and Earn Reading Program: Reading enrichment program which encourages participants to read and enhance their reading skills

Women's Work Force Web: Identifies and assists qualified women in Greensboro to acquire job skills training and jobs, share skills that women can utilize to help their own children, assist women by helping them to utilize the “webs” that are available in our community (336) 697-2665

YMCA of Greater High Point: An association that oversees the development of the other four branches of the locally-based Y

YMCA of Greensboro: Organization whose programs are developmental in nature, helping people grow in spirit, mind, and body

YWCA SOS Project: Support Our Students, Greensboro after school program

Youth Focus: A United Way agency dedicated to helping young people and their families learn to deal with today's pressures