Guilford Education Alliance Launches Redesigned Website

Guilford County, N.C. – March 10 – Guilford Education Alliance is proud to announce the launching of their redesigned website, www.GuilfordEducationAlliance.org. The site contains information on Guilford Education Alliance programs, reports on education issues and ways to become involved in local education. Below are examples of what is available on the website.

Programs: Principal for a Day, On Stage!, New Teacher Reception, Education Leadership Academy, Education Summit, community forums

Reports: Supportive Services for Youth Resource Guide, the 2007 and 2008 Education Matters Report, FAQs about School Funding, Guilford County Teacher Working Conditions Report, Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) Reports

Ways to Become Involved: information on how to donate to our local classrooms through DonorsChoose.org and the Teacher Supply Warehouse

After visiting our website, we invite the public to let us know of any suggestions or comments that will help enhance the website and make it more useful for the community.

Guilford Education Alliance is a county-wide nonprofit organization whose mission is to make education a TOP priority of all citizens in Guilford County.
